

Financial Regulations

Junior College Residential Stay

IB Diploma Programme or Pre IB course including full boarding.

Admission fee	CHF 600.-	payable upon enrollment
Building Fund	CHF 3'500.-	This is a non-refundable one-time payment. It is billed together with the initial tuition fee invoice. This fee is not part of the operational budget but goes into a fund for financing the building and upkeep of the facilities.
Tuition fee	CHF 29'980.- CHF 32'000.-	Pre IB course grade 10 per year IB Diploma Programme grades 11 or 12 per year includes	courses; tuition in all school-offered subject courses; cost of all course books and material; shuttle bus to and from school; use of a school computer; career and university counseling; CAS programme; homework assistance and study hour supervision; academic day excursions; use of media centre, sports facilities; WiFi and internet access.
	does not include	IB examination fees and other organizational services of the IB; Pamoja Online Courses; private tuition or coaching; musical instrument lessons; private sports lessons; city trips; excursions with overnight stays (i.e. Geography excursion to the Alps, camp weeks); liability or accident insurance; individual travel to and from the school.
Boarding fee	CHF 24'180.-	per year
	includes	supervision; accommodation and meals (3 x day) for 36 teaching weeks of school and for winter break (1 week Feb= internship week); weekend trips and excursions.
	does not include	holidays (autumn, Christmas, spring, summer); single room; personal shopping; travel; theater, cinemas, concerts, personal restaurants, personal sports/club memberships; travel insurance for trips and excursions; medical insurances; cost of medical care and medication; personal mobile and smartphone costs; rental or purchase of ski equipment; cost of Swiss resident permit.
Discounts:		There is a general reduction of 10 % for families with more than 1 child, applicable for the second child and additional siblings.

As part of the visa requirements, the yearly school and boarding fees have to be paid in advance. The bank statement of the school fees paid is part of the documentation needed for visa applications. The school will send a bill once the enrollment is completed. For students who do not require a visa, the ISSH Financial and General Regulations apply as outlined in the enrollment form.

March 2023